Looking ahead to... 40th edition of the IAAF World Cross Country Championships

Under the IAAF banner since 1973 the IAAF World Cross Country Championships which are hosted this year in Bydgoszcz, Poland on Sunday 24 March 2013 celebrates its 40th edition.

The IAAF World Cross Championships represents the very pinnacle of long distance running competition over variable terrain. Cross country running also exemplifies the true accessibility of our sport, as even the poorest countries can participate at the top international level, with no more expense incurred than for running vests and shorts. It is the purest of activities, requiring nothing but guts and determination to succeed, characteristics which are at the heart of athletics' enduring international appeal.
