

Candidate Pack

Summary

Check List

Please do

- Complete all required vetting and integrity checks in accordance with the Vetting Rules by 25 April by contacting compliance@iaaf.org as early as possible in 2019.
- Secure the written approval of your Member Association through its executive body, before undertaking to complete the Candidate Pack.
- Submit a completed Candidate Pack to the CEO of the IAAF (elections2019@iaaf.org) no later than 25 June 2019 i.e three (3) months before the Election Congress.
- Promote your candidacy in a manner that respects all other candidates, Member Federations, their representatives and delegates, and the IAAF.
- Public statements, interviews or written material to promote a Candidate should comply with the Integrity Code of Conduct, guidelines of the Election Oversight Panel (as may be issued from time to time) and be cleared with the IAAF Press Office.
- Seek permission from the Election Oversight Panel and comply with the guidelines before undertaking a debate or a public meeting (either directly or through another person), when its purpose is to promote Candidacy at the IAAF or the Presidency at the Area Association.
- Disclose to the Ethical Compliance Officer all gifts, grants, advantages or benefits of whatever nature or value offered or given in the 12 months before the Election Congress, except gifts and exchanges of tokens of courtesy that are nominal (i.e they have no or little commercial value).
- Disclose all Significant Interests and Conflict of Interests, as per the IAAF's Conflicts, Disclosures and Gift Rules and keep the same updated.
- Each Candidate may spend up to Euro 25,000 on campaign expenditures. A Candidate for President may spend up to Euro 50,000. The Election Oversight Panel may approve spending above these limits in response to a detailed request by a Candidate. All amounts exclude applicable taxes.
- Candidates agree to provide bank account and expenditure statements and other relevant information concerning funds used to support their candidacy upon request by the Ethical Compliance Officer or the Election Oversight Panel.
- Contact EOPanel@iaaf.org if you have any questions.

Please avoid

- Do not take any action that harms the image and/or reputation or causes prejudice against another candidate or the IAAF.
- No forum, debate or public meeting of any kind may be organized, held or participated in for the purpose of promoting a Candidate, unless at the invitation of the Election Oversight Panel.
- Do not make payments, directly or indirectly, to journalists or other persons affiliated with the media, and don't use free media services without the consent of the IAAF Press Office.
- A Candidate who is a current IAAF Official may refer to his or her Candidacy "in a purely factual manner"; promotion of their candidacy during official IAAF meetings and events is not permitted.
- Do not offer or give any gifts whether directly or indirectly, to or at the request of any person who will vote in the election. It is permissible to exchange gifts of nominal value (i.e a mug, a modest pen with a promotional logo etc).
- Do not make inappropriate promises to act for the direct or indirect benefit of an individual, an Area Association or Member Federation, except in the course of an initiative approved by the IAAF.
- Do not engage in collaboration or collusion with other Candidates in order to defraud or manipulate the result of the vote.
- Do not use/receive individual or special support or services from any IAAF staff, consultants and advisors, beyond administrative support and services to ensure candidacies are conducted fairly and openly.
- Candidates who are current IAAF Officials shall not request or receive individual or special support or services from IAAF Staff, including third parties engaged by the IAAF, with their candidacy.
